MORTGAGE BROKER FEE DISCLOSURE

You have applied to us, a mortgage broker, for a residential mortgage loan. We will submit your application for a residential mortgage loan to a participating lender with which from time to time contracts upon such terms and conditions as you may request or a lender may require. The lenders have asked that this form be furnished to you to clarify the role of mortgage brokers. This form supplements other disclosures or agreements required by law that you should receive from us concerning your application.

SECTION 1. NATURE OF RELATIONSHIP. In connection with this mortgage loan:

- We have separate independent contractor agreements with various lenders.
- While we seek to assist you in meeting your financial needs, we do not distribute the products of all lenders or investors in the market, and we cannot guarantee the lowest price or the best terms available in the market.

SECTION 2. THE BROKER'S COMPENSATION. The lenders whose loan products we broker generally provide their loan products to us at a wholesale rate.

- The retail price we offer you; your interest rate, total points, and fees, will include our compensation.
- In some cases, we may be paid all of our compensation either by you or the lender.
- Alternatively, we may be paid a portion of our compensation by both you and the lender. For example, in some cases if you would rather pay a lower interest rate, you may pay a higher up-front points and fees.
- Also, in some cases if you would rather pay less up-front, you may wish to have some or all of your fees paid directly by the lender. This would result in a higher interest rate and higher monthly payments than you would be required to pay in the previous example.
- We also may be paid by the lender based on (i) the value of the Mortgage Loan or related servicing right in the market place or (ii) other services, goods or facilities performed or provided by us to the lender.

You may work with us to select the method in which we receive our compensation depending on your financial needs, and subject to the lender's loan program requirements and credit underwriting guidelines.

The amount of fees and charges that you pay in connection with your loan will be estimated on your Good Faith Estimate. The final amounts will be disclosed on your HUD-1 or HUD-1A Settlement Statement.

By signing below, applicant(s) acknowledge that you have read and understand this document. By your signature, you also acknowledge that you have received a copy of this document.

CALIFORNIA CREDIT SCORE DISCLOSURES

NOTICE TO THE HOME LOAN APPLICANT

In connection with your application for a home loan, the lender must disclose to you the score that a credit bureau distributed to users and the lender used in connection with your home loan, and the key factors affecting your credit scores.

The credit score is a computer-generated summary calculated at the time of the request and based on information a credit bureau or lender has on file. The scores are based on data about your credit history and payment patterns. Credit scores are important because they are used to assist the lender in determining whether you will obtain the loan. They may also be used to determine what interest rate you may be offered on the mortgage. Credit scores can change over time, depending on your conduct, how your credit history and payment patterns change, and how credit-scoring technologies change.

If you have questions about your credit score or the credit information that is furnished to you, contact the credit bureau at the address and telephone number provided with this notice, or contact the lender, if the lender developed or generated the credit score. The credit bureau plays no part in the decision to take any action on the loan application and is unable to provide you with specific reasons for the decision on a loan application.

If you have questions concerning the terms of the loan, contact the lender.
